

PALM SPRINGS INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

January 5 – 9, 2012

Join Stephen Farber in another Reel Travel film festival tour, and start the new year at the glamorous Palm Springs International Film Festival. People on the East Coast who want to escape frigid weather, and Southern Californians who crave a restful getaway, will all relish the balmy ambience of Palm Springs in January.

The Palm Springs International Film Festival is noted for its emphasis on the best foreign film Oscar contenders, along with top American indies and provocative documentaries. The festival always attracts a dazzling array of stars for special tributes and seminars. This past year's honorees included Colin Firth, Robert Duvall, Ben Affleck, Javier Bardem, Natalie Portman, Carey Mulligan, and directors Danny Boyle and David O. Russell.

Exclusive to participants in Stephen Farber's Reel Travel tour is the opportunity to enjoy private meetings with visiting stars and filmmakers, along with other behind-the-scenes encounters.

SUN & THE CINEMA

A MATCH MADE IN MOVIE HEAVEN!

Sun-drenched days and star-studded nights.... Palm trees.... Culture.... Nightlife.... Golf.... Tennis.... Swimming.... Hiking.... Horseback riding.... Top-notch casinos.... World-class spas and shopping....
What's missing from this picture? JUST YOU!

Palm Springs has something for everyone under a clear canopy of sun and stars. The star-power at the Palm Springs International Film Festival is more than a match for the moonlit desert skies. If you're looking for a grand getaway from the winter blues, this is just the ticket!

This year the Festival will again present the best in cinema from around the world. Among the over 200 films shown during the Festival (January 5-16) will be the popular Oscar Buzz series, including most of the top Oscar contenders for best foreign language film. Also enjoy the Talking Pictures Seminars, featuring in-depth conversations with visiting stars and filmmakers, as well as gala screenings and parties.

SPECIAL FOR YOU

Film critic Stephen Farber, a regular contributor to The Hollywood Reporter and The Daily Beast, will be your guide on this heady filmgoing adventure. He works in Los Angeles, where he is the host and moderator of "Reel Talk", an innovative series featuring some of the most provocative new films, along with lively discussions afterwards with top filmmakers and film stars

At last year's visit to the Palm Springs International Film Festival, Farber's group had a private lunch with a co-star and producer of Down the Shore, James Gandolfini's World Premiere film. In previous years, Farber's group had a private lunch with Phil Donahue and Ellen Spiro, the co-directors of the powerful Iraq war documentary, Body of War, as well as a luxurious dinner with award-winning director Paul Mazursky, (Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice, An Unmarried Woman, Down and Out in Beverly Hills), who regaled the group with stories about his many successful productions and shared juicy off-the-record reminiscences.

On some of our other festival trips, we had private meetings with actors Melissa Leo, Jacqueline Bisset, Ethan Hawke, Julie Delpy, as well as award-winning directors Bill Condon, John Boorman, Richard Linklater, Debra Granik, and Lee Daniels. Our group has also been able to attend seminars and press conferences with Glenn Close, Shirley Maclaine, Lauren Bacall, Clint Eastwood, Gael Garcia Bernal, Robert De Niro, and many others.
